RALEIGH, (SGRToday.com) - The debate over House Bill 2 continues. The law, passed, with bipartisan support in the General Assembly and signed into law by Gov. Pat McCrory, sets aside Charlotte’s ordinance that would have allowed transgendered individuals to use public accommodations consistent with their gender identity, not their anatomy.

On Monday, supporters of the bill rallied at the state capitol. Their event comes in response to outcries from some businesses and entertainers who say the law is discriminatory.

The text and details of the bill can be found at ncleg.net.
